

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

FIRST YEAR

Sl.	Subjects	Paper Code	Theory		Practical
			Max marks	Min marks	Max	Min
1.	Ayurved Siddhant Evam Itihas	DAP 110	100	40	--	--
2.	Sharir Rachana	DAP 120	100	40	100	40
3.	Dravyaguna vigyan-1	DAP 130	100	40	100	40
4.	R.S.& B.K. -1	DAP 140	100	40	100	40
5.	PrathmikUpacharEvamRugna Paricharya	DAP 150	100	40	--	--
			500	300
	Total Marks		800

SECOND YEAR

Sl.	Subject	Paper Code	Theory		Practical
			Max	Min	Max	Min
1.	Dravyaguna vigyan-2	DAP 210	100	40	100	40
2.	R.S.& B.K. –2	DAP 220	100	40	100	40
3.	Ayurved Parichay including roganidan Evam Chikitsa	DAP 230	100	40	--	--
4.	Ayurvedic Pharmaceutics including Hospital and Clinical Pharmacy	DAP 240	100	40	100	40
5.	KriyaShaarir	DAP 250	100	40	--	--
6.	Selected Topics in Pharmacy	DAP 260	100	40	--	--
			600		300
	Total				900

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	AYURVED SIDDHANTEVAMITIHAAS	DAP 110

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The course is intended to train personnel mainly for meeting requirements of consumer sector of Ayurvedic drugs. They will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:- Paper 1 Basic Principles and History of Ayurveda

1. Definition of Ayurved.
2. Ashtanga Ayurved – The eight specialized branches of Ayurveda, concept and definition.
3. Ayurvediya Padarth Vigyan and its importance. Characteristics and classification of Padarth.
4. Dravyaguna Vigyan, characteristics, number and classification of dravyas. The characteristics ,qualities(gunas) and origin of Panchamahabhutas and the irmutualmicro-merging(Parasparaanupraves).h).
5. Applied studies of dravyas from Ayurvedic perspective.
6. Characteristics of Dik, Kala, Atma and Mana.
7. GunaVigyan:characteristics and types of Gunas as gurvadiguna, adhyatmikaguna,vaisheshikaguna, saamanyaguna.
8. Karmavigyan: characteristics and types of Karmas.

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

9. Saamanya ,Vishesha, Samvaya Vigyaniam – characteristics and types.
10. Pramaanavigyaniam : characteristics ,importance and number of Pramaana. The Pramaanas accepted byAyurveda – Pratyaksha. Anumaana, Aptopdesha and Yukti Pramaanas.
11. Effect and causative factor (Karya, KaranaBhava): Description of Karya–Karana Bhava and various
 - a. Vaadas. Features of cause (Kaarana) and types. Description of samavayi, asamavayi and nimittakaranain Ayurved. Satkaryavad, Asatkaryavada, Parmanu vada, Pilupaka, Pitharapaka etc.
12. The advent of Ayurveda(Ayurvedavatarana): The Atreya (CharakaSamhita) and the Dhanvantari (Sushruta Samhita) traditionsof Ayurveda.
13. Laghutrayi and Brihatrayi Parichaya.
14. Development of Ayrvediya Rasashastra & Bhaishajya Kalpana.
15. Propagation of Ayurveda in foreign countries.

Reference Books:-

A). Padartha Vigyan:-

- | | |
|--|--------------------------|
| 1. Padarthavigyan | Acharya Ramraksha Pathak |
| 2. Ayurvediya Padartha Vigyana | Vaidya Ranjit Rai Desai |
| 3. Ayurved Darshana | Acharya Rajkumar Jain |
| 4. Padartha Vigyana | Kashikar |
| 5. Padartha Vigyana | Balwant Shastri |
| 6. Sankhyatantwa Kaumadi | GajananS hasatri |
| 7. Psycho Pathology in Indian Medicine | Dr. S.P. Gupta |

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	SHARIR RACHANA	DAP 120

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The course is intended to train personnel mainly for meeting requirements of consumer sector of Ayurvedic drugs. They will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

Course content:-

1. Definition of Shaariram, its derivation, meaning, synonym and Interpretation,
2. Shadang Sharira: Six regions of Body, organs of abdomen, their names and description,
3. Asthisharira: Number and types of bones according to Sushrut and Modern Science,
4. Sandhi sharira: Number and types of joints with examples according to Sushrut.
5. Koshta & Ashaya sharira: Define Koshta and enumerate the koshtangs and ashaya in the body.
6. Peshisharira: Definition of Peshi and their importance in the body,
7. Shira, Dhamani & Srotas sharira: srotas, sira, dhamani are similar structures what is the difference between them.
8. Definition of srotas, its derivation and number, names and importance.
9. Structure of eye, ear, brain, heart, pancreas, gall-bladder, spleen.
10. Garbha sharira – foetal anatomy-shukra & artava's qualities qualifying them as pure & competent for conception.

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

11. Beeja, Beejabhaga, Beeja bhagavayava.
12. Morphological and physiological changes in the embryo during nine months in the womb.
13. Indriya vigyansharira : Sensory organs and their locations and nerves concerned with each.
14. Twaksharira : layers of skin ,their names according to Sushrut and modern science.
15. Organs participating in the digestion process in the Alimentary canal.
16. The anatomical description of organs of urinary system.
17. Kalasharira : Definition and names of kala according to Sushruta.
18. Spinalcord , cranial nerves.
19. Describe in detail the vertebrae of vertebral column.
20. 12 pranas, 10 pranayata, 3 pradhana marmani, 15 koshaagni.
21. Description of Hridayam according to Sushruta and its importance and functions in health.
22. Description of Yakrita ,its importance and functions according to modern science.

Reference Books:-

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Charak Samhita Sushrut ke | Prof. Jyotirmitra Acharya Darshanik Vishay ka Adhyayan |
| 2. Ayurvediya Padartha Vigyana | Dr. Ayodhya Prasad Achal |
| 3. Padartha Vigyana | Dr. Vidyadhar Shukla |
| 4. Padartha Vigyana | Dr. Ravidutta Tripathi |
| 5. Ayurvediya Padartha Vigyana | Vaidya Ramkrishna Sharma Dhand |
| 6. Ayurvediya Padartha Vigyan Parichaya | Vaidya Banwarilal Gaur |
| 7. Ayurvediya Padartha Darshan | Pandit Shrivhare |

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	DRAVYAGUNA VIGYAN-I	DAP130

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The students will be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Definition of Dravyaguna Vigyanand its importance.

Definition of Dravyaand its importance.

Definition of Rasa, types and Panchbhautic composition of Rasa,

Definition, types and importance of Gunas, Vipaka, Veerya, Prabhav.

Introduction to Karmas(actions)

Deepan, Paachan, Graahi, stambhan, Bhedan, Rechan, Anuloman, Sramsana, Samshodhana, Rasayana, Vajikarana, Vyavai, Madakari, Vikasi.

Introduction to Mishrak Varga

Triphala, Madhurtriphala, Sugandhatriphala, Swalpatriphala, Trijatake, Chaturjata, Trikatu, Trimada, Panchkola, Shadushan, Panchawalkala, Chathurshana, Trikantaka, Panchapallav, LaghuPanchamool, BrihadPanchmoola, Vallipanchmoola, Trinpanchmoola, Ashtavarga.

Classification of Drug according to Ayurvedic principles.

Study of following drugs including Classification, Latinname. Family, Vernacularname, Synonyms, Botanical description, Varities. Habitat, Chemical composition, Properties, Doshakarm, Actions. Uses, Parts used: Dosage, Formulations, Substitute and Adulteration.

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

1. Aragvadha	2. Ardraka
3. Apaamarga	4. Arjuna
5. Ashwagandha	6. Arka
7. Aamalaki	8. Ashok
9. Balaa	10. Bilva
11. Bhringraj	12. Dhatura
13. Ela	14. Gokshur
15. Guduchi	16. Guggulu
17. Chandan	18. Chitrak
19. Haritakee	20. Haridra
21. Jyotishmati	22. Jamboo
23. Jataamansi	24. Kutaja
25. Khadira	26. Bhumyamalki
27. Nirgundi	28. Nimba
29. Marich	30. Madanphala
31. Pareesha	32. Punarnava
33. Pippali	34. Rohitak
35. Rasona	36. Shirisha
37. Shatavari	38. Karanja
39. Kumari	40. Shalmali
41. Sudershan	42. Tulsi
43. Tvak	44. Udumber
45. Vansh	46. Vacha
47. Vibhitaki	48. Lodhra
49. Vidang	50. Yashtimadhu
51. Katuka	52. Vasa
53. Sarpagandha	54. Sunthi

Practical

Preparation of Herbarium Sheets of 25 drugs. Method of Identification of Drugs. Description and identification of atleast 30 important drugs mentioned In the theory.

REFERENCE BOOKS:

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1. Upodghata of Kashyapasamhita | Rajguru Hem Raj Sharma |
| Paragraph of acceptance of Indian medicine | |
| 2. Upodghata of Rasa Yogasagar | Vaidy Hariprapanna Sharma |
| 3. Ayurveda Ka Itihas | KaviraSuram Chand |
| 4. Ayurveda Sutra | Rajvaidya Ram Prasad Sharma |
| 5. History of Indian Medicine (1-3 part) | Dr. GirindrNath Mukhopadhyaya |

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	RASA SHASTRA ANDBHAISHJYA KALPANA-I	DAP 140

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Students taking up diploma course in Ayurvedic Pharmacy must have basic knowledge of Rasa Shastra and Bhaishjya Kalpana an ancient science of alchemy. They must know the classical method and principles involved in the manufacturing of different Ayurvedic formulations. The students will be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Students taking up diploma course in Ayurvedic Pharmacy must have basic knowledge of RasaShastra and Bhaishjya Kalpana an ancient science of alchemy. They must know the classical method and principles involved in the manufacturing of different Ayurvedic formulations and should also get the practical training of preparing these drugs. They must also know the basic concepts of manufacturing, storage, preservation and is pending of Ayurvedic drugs. The syllabus of diploma course includes these aspects of teaching and training.

SECTION-I RASASHASTRA

1. Definition of RasaShastra, importance in Ayurveda and brief history of RasaShastra, its relevance in vedicera, Ayurvedic literature and in Modern science.
2. Define(Pribhashas)Shodhana,Sanskar,Marana,Satvapatan,Nirvap,Avap,Dhanvantaribhag,Ru drabhag,kajjali,Patanpisht, Dhanyabhrak, Bubhukshitparad, Hinguloth Parad.
3. Parada–Its synonyms,origin,its impurities ,gatis, Samanya–Vishesh Shodhana ,Shudhparad lakshanaparadiya Kalpnana – Kajjali, Parpati, Pottali,Kuppipakva rasayana and Kharliya Rasayana.
4. Brief descriptions of Yantra,puta and Musha, yantra–Dolayantra. Vidyadharyantra, Taptakhalvayantra,
5. Musha–
Samanya,Vajra,Vajradravani,Yog,Gar,Var,Varnya,Ropya.Bid,Gostani,Vrintaak,Gol,Malla, Pakva,Maha,Manduk,Musha.
6. Classicification of drugs in Rasa Shastra.
7. Maharasas – their synonyms, indentification, types impurities shodhana, Marana, therapeutic doses and compound formulations ,side effects and its antidote.

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

8. Aushadh Yogas:

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. PanchamritParpati | 2. Shweta Parpati |
| 3. .Abragarbha pottali | 4. Hemagarbha pottali |
| 5. RasaSindur | 6. Mallasindur |
| 7. Makardhwaj | 8. Suvarnabang |
| 9. Saptamrita loha | 10 .Kamadudha |
- rasaTheircomposition, properties and uses.

SECTION-II:BHAISHJYAKALPANA

1. Definition of Bhaishaja –Bhaishjyakalapna and its brief history in Vedas Ayurvedic samhitas and in samgrah period.
2. Paribhashas – Deepana , Paachana , Rasayana , Vajikarna , Stambhana, Stransana, Virechak, Vamana.
3. Maana Paribhasha according to Sharangdhar samhita.
4. Panchavidha kashaya kalpna, their method of preparation and their uses.
5. Preparation methods of Avaleha Kalpana,Churna, Vati, Guggula Kalpana.
6. Aushadh Yoga:
 - 1.DashamoolKwath
 - 2 .Phalatrikadi Kwath
 - 3 PathyadiKwath
 4. Rasnasaptak Kwath
 5. Vasavaleha
 - 6 .Chyavanaprashavaleha
 7. .Sitopaladi Churna
 - 8 .Talisaadi Churna
 9. .DashanasamskarChurna
 - 10.Lavanbhaskar Churna
 11. Triphala Guggulu
 - 12 .Abha Guggulu
 13. Yograj Guggulu
 - 14 Bala ChaturbhadraChurna Their composition, properties and uses.

Practical

Preparation of at least 20 yogas(formulations)from Rasa Shastra and Bhaishjya Kalpana, including purification processes.

REFERENCE BOOKS:

- | | |
|--|---------------------------|
| 1. Ayurveda- Prabhashaka Jainacharya | Acharya Raj Kumar Jain |
| 2. CharakaChintana | Acharya Priyavrata Sharma |
| 3. Vagbhata Vivechana | Acharya Priyavrata Sharma |
| 4. Atharvaveda and Ayurveda | Dr. Karambelkara |
| 5. Ayurvedic Medicine Past and Present | Pt. Shiv Sharma |
| 6. Ancient Scientist | Dr. O.P. Jaggi |

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

7. Luminaries of Indian Medicine
8. Ayurveda Ke Itihasa Ka Parichaya
9. Ayurveda Ke Pranacharya
10. Ayurveda Itihasa Parichaya

Dr. K.R. Shrikanta Murthy
Dr. RaviduttaTripathi
Ratnakara Shastri
Prof. Banwari Lal Gaur

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	PRATHAMIK UPACHAR EVAM RUGNAPARICHARYA	DAP150

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Students in Ayurvedic Pharmacy must have basic knowledge of Rasa Shastra and Bhaishjya Kalpana an ancient science of alchemy. They must know the classical method and principles involved in the manufacturing of different Ayurvedic formulations. The students will be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Swasthasyalakshnam, Swasthyaswarupam, swasthsyarakshanartham. UpacharDincharya, Ratricharya, Ritucharya, Rituwanusaren, Aharaswarupam, Nivassthanvichar, Aharavidhivishesayatanani, parasp araviruddhadravyagunam Peyadravyavishesh, Anupanvichar, Niwassthan, udyogasthan, kridasthan, sikshasthan, Paniyajalasthan. Aramgnna, Jalapan griha, Manovinodsthaladinamniyojana, Aadogika sadvritasamanyesadurita.

Satmyasatmyavichar, Shuchitvam, Vaidyaguna, Chikitsalaya Bhesajyanirman Garadisucha. Shuchitv avivek, asuchan, Bhutanma, Kitadinamacy pravesha.

Tatjanyavikritivigyanam, tannivarkopayaprati Rodhakapaya. S ankramak Roga

Gyanam, Tanpodwanshakarnam, Teshmaviwarnopaya. Vayu, Tala, Kala, Deshashacha, Tesham Durtih Tanniwarnopaya.

Vegan dharniyadharniyam Vivek, Kitpatangadinam, Jiwanaitham, Masak.

Makshika, Pipalikadi, Sansargatah, Roghvishesha, Teshammanavdeho raktagatam chatragatam vaishamyam. Sankramak Nirodhak Bhavaha

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Sankramak rogaprasarasheha, prasangat Gatransparsati, Nihswarat, Sah
Bhojanat, Ekasayyashat. Gandhamalyadi, samparkaccho psarga Rogah

Teshaam vishistam vigyanamtanni Rodhak& Niwarnabhu tascha Bhavah

REFERENCE BOOKS:

1. Vedomein Ayurveda Dr. Kapil Dev Dwivedi
2. Science and Philosophy of Indian Medicine Dr. K.N. Udupa
3. History of Indian Medicine from Dr. Jyotirmitra Pre-Mauryan to Kushana Period
4. An Appraisal of Ayurvedic Material in Buddhist literature Dr. Jyotirmitra
5. Mahayana Granthon mein nihita Dr. Ravindra Nath Tripathi Ayurvediya Samagri
6. Jain Ayurveda Sahitya Ka Itihasa Dr. Rajendra Prakash Bhatnagar

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

SECOND YEAR

Sl.	Subject	Paper Code	Theory		Practical
			Max	Min	Max	Min
1.	Dravyaguna vigyan-2	DAP 210	100	40	100	40
2.	R.S.& B.K. –2	DAP 220	100	40	100	40
3.	Ayurved Parichay including roganidan Evam Chikitsa	DAP 230	100	40	--	--
4.	Ayurvedic Pharmaceutics including Hospital and Clinical Pharmacy	DAP 240	100	40	100	40
5.	KriyaShaairir	DAP 250	100	40	--	--
6.	Selected Topics in Pharmacy	DAP 260	100	40	--	--
			600		300
	Total				900

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	DRAVYAGUNAVIGYAN-II	DAP 210

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Students taking up diploma course in Ayurvedic Pharmacy must have basic knowledge of Rasa Shastra and Bhaishjya Kalpana an ancient science of alchemy. They must know the classical method and principles involved in the manufacturing of different Ayurvedic formulations. The students will be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Brief History of the Science of Drvayaguna Shastra,

Concept of Rasa, Guna, Veerya, Vipak and Prabhava,

Collection Storage and Preservation of Drugs.

Various impurities of Drugs, methods of Purification of Drugs.

Ayurvedic concept of pharmacological actions of drugs like, Rasayan, Vajikarana, Medhya, Vyavayi, Vikasi, Pramathi, Madkari, Anulomana, Chhedna.

Characteristic functions of Samanyapratyarabdha and Vichitrapratyarabdha,

Knowledge, properties, effect and uses of following drugs of Animal origin: Kasturi, Gorochan, Prawal, Mukta, Shankh, Shambook, Varatika, Shukti, Mrigshringa.

Mishrak Varga dravyas Chaturbeeja, Kantakpanchmoola, Panchkshiri vriksha, Panchpallava, Shadanga paneeya, Madhyampanchmoola. Upavisha

Study of following drugs including classification, Latinname, Family, Vernacular name, Synonyms, Botanical description, Varieties, Habitat, Chemical composition, Properties, Doshakarm, Actions and Uses, Part used, Dosage, Formulation, Substitutes and Adulterants.

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

- | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Agnimanth | 2. Aristak |
| 3. Ativisha | 4. Aparajita |
| 5. Amragandhi–haridra | 6. Asthishrimkhala |
| 7. Banfsa | 8. Bhallatak |
| 9. Brahmi | 10. Bhanga |
| 11. Arka | 12. Chakramarda |
| 13. Changeri | 14. Champak |
| 15. Dantee | 16. Draksha |
| 17. Doorva | 18. Dhatura |
| 19. Erand | 20. Gambhari |
| 21. Gunja | 22. Hingu |
| 23. Hrinsa | 24. Irimeda |
| 25. Kanchnar | 26. Kirattikta |
| 27. Kapikachchu | 28. Karveera |
| 29. Langali | 30. Mandookparni |
| 31. Methika | 32. Mamajjak |
| 33. Mustaka | 34. Patha |
| 35. Sleshmatak | 36. Saptaparna |
| 37. Vansha | 38. Trikantak |
| 39. Varuna | 40. Aralu |
| 41. Bakul | 42. Gojiwha |
| 43. Manjistha | 44. Sariva |

PRACTICAL:

Preparation of Herbarium sheets of 50 drugs, Methods of Identification of drugs. Description and identification of at least 30 important drugs mentioned in the theory.

REFERENCE BOOKS:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. Indian Medicine (Osteology) | Dr. Harnley |
| 2. Ancient Indian Medicine | Dr. P. Kutumbia |
| 3. Madhava Nidan and its Chief | Dr. G.J. Mulenbelt Commentaries |
| 4. Ayurveda Ka BrihatItihasa | Vaidya Atridev Vidyalkankara |
| 5. Ayurveda Ka VaigyanikaItihasa | Acharya Priyavrata Sharma |
| 6. Ayurveda Ka PramanikaItihasa | Prof. Bhagwat Ram Gupta |
| 7. History of Medicine in India | Acharya Priyavrata Sharma |
| 8. Vedomein Ayurveda | Vaidya Ram GopalS hasatri |

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	RASASHASTRA AND BHAISHJYAKALPANA–II	DAP 220

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Students taking up diploma course in Ayurvedic Pharmacy must have basic knowledge of Rasa Shastra and Bhaishjya Kalpana an ancient science of alchemy. They must know the classical method and principles involved in the manufacturing of different Ayurvedic formulations. The students will be trained to maintaining stores of Ayurvedic drugs (both raw materials and finished products) properly

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Section–I Rasa Shastra

Principles of Shodhana, Marana and Jarana of Metals & Minerals.

Introduction, identification, types, impurities, shodhana, marana, therapeutic dose, adverse effects and antidotes of Upasahas, Sadharan Rasa, Dhātu and Ratna.

Introduction, shodhana, therapeutic dose, antidotes, toxicity of visha-upavisha varga,

Preparation of several Ayurvedic formulations like Bhasma, Sindooras, Netrabindu, Varti & Rasa preparations.

Aushadha Yoga; Anandbhairavrasa, Arogyavardhini rasa, Garbhapalrasa, Gandhak rasayana Tribhuvankirtirasa, Laxmivilas rasa, Navajivan rasa, Shwaskutharrasa, Ichchhabhedirasa Chandraprabhavati

Section–II Bhaishajya Kalpana

Preparatory methods of Sneha Kalpana and Sandhan Kalpana.

Definition and application of Bhojana, Bhavana, Samskara, Mardana.

Preparatory methods of satva, Ghan Kalpana, Kshar Nirmana, Malhar Kalpana.

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Preparation of several Ayurvedic formulations :Asavas, Arishtha, Taila, Ghrita, etc.

AushadhaYogas:

- | | |
|-----------------------|------------------|
| 1. Panchatikta Ghrita | 2. JatyadiGhrita |
| 3. TriphalaGhrita | 4. Pind tail |
| 5.. Satapaki Balitail | 6. Panchaguntai |
| 7. Drakshasava | 8. Kutajarishta |
| 9. Bhringrajtail | 10. Shadabinduta |
| 11.Vishgarbhatail | 12. Shakha vati |
| 13.Khadiradivati | 14. Lavangadivat |

Their compositions, properties

Practical:

Preparation of at least 30 yoga (Formulations) of different Kaplan's.

REFERENCE BOOKS:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| 1. A Short history of Aryan Medical Science | Bhagwat Singh |
| 2. History of Indian Medicine | J. Jolly |
| 3. Hindu Medicine | Zimer |
| 4. Classical Doctrine of Indian Medicine | Filiyosa |
| 5. Indian Medicine in the classical age | AcharyaPriyavrata Sharma |

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	AYURVED PARICHAY INCLUDING ROGANIDAN EVAM CHIKITSA	DAP 230

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The main aim of the section on Ayurved parichay as a whole subject so that the students become familiar with the various important terminologies and subjects of Ayurveda.

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Definition of Ayurveda as science of life.

Brief introduction of Ashtang Ayurveda, Ayurveda Utpatti and Vikas.

Important literary works, especially texts – Brihatrayi & Laghutrayi.

Panchakarma, Kriyakalpa, Agnikarma, Kshara Karma etc. Special therapeutic procedures– brief description.

Aushadha, Ahara, Aushadha sevana kala, Anupana, Anupana & Sahapana, Pathya- Apathya.

Clinical importance of Chikitsa Chatuspada, Tridosha, Dhātu, Mala, Siddhanta.

Definition and importance of Roga Vignana and Vikruti Vignana.

Signs and symptoms of the increase and decrease of Doshas, Dhātu and Malas.
Kriyakala.

The importance of srotas in the production of diseases.

The determination of the disorders of srotasa.

The causes and signs and symptoms of the vitiation of srotasa.

The causes of the diseases of the different srotasa.

Definition, General discussion and types of Vyadhi (disease).

Astha mahagada (major disease) and asthanindita (condemned).

General description and importance of Nidana - panchaka.

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Trividha Rogipariksha vidhi (Darshana etc. threetypes of Methodology of investigating a patient).

Signs, Symptoms and diseases of oja vyapata, oja kshaya and oja chyuti.

Vyadhikshamatva (Immunity).

General description of Janapadodhvamsaka vyadhi (Epidemics) and Aupsargika Roga and Sansargika Roga (Infectious and communicable diseases).

REFERENCE BOOKS:

- | | |
|--|---------------------------|
| 1. Ayurveda- Prabhashaka Jainacharya | Acharya Raj Kumar Jain |
| 2. Charaka Chintana | Acharya Priyavrata Sharma |
| 3. Vagbhata Vivechana | Acharya Priyavrata Sharma |
| 4. Atharvaveda and Ayurveda | Dr. Karambelkara |
| 5. Ayurvedic Medicine Past and Present | Pt. Shiv Sharma |

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	AYURVEDIC PHARMACEUTICS INCLUDING HOSPITAL AND CLINICAL PHARMACY	DAP 240

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The main aim of the section on Ayurveda Parichaya is to introduce the Knowledge of Ayurvedic medicines as a whole so that the students become familiar with the various important terminologies and subjects of Ayurveda. And its importance in hospital & clinical pharmacy.

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Introduction of Different dosage forms.

Introduction to Pharmacopoeia as with special reference to the Ayurvedic Pharmacopoeia of India.

Metrology – Systems, Weight and measures.

Packaging of Pharmaceuticals.

Sterilization –Concept of Sterilization and its types.

Brief introduction to processing of tablets, capsules, syrups, etc.

Prescriptions: Reading and understanding of prescriptions, Latin terms commonly used Modern methods of prescribing, adoption of metric system. Calculations involved in dispensing. Incompatibilities in Prescriptions.

Posology– Dose and dosage of drugs.

Brief introduction to semi-solid form like ointment etc.

Brief introduction to sterile Dosage form with special reference to precautions in their handling and storage.

Hospital pharmacy.

Drug distribution system in Hospital.

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Practical:

1. Dispensing Pharmacy in OPD/IPD for two days in week.
2. To prescribe and distribute drugs for at least 15 different diseases.
3. To identify and note the organoleptic characters and uses of at least 50 drugs seen in the OPD/IPD.

Books Recommended:

1. Remington's Pharmaceutical Sciences.
2. Bentley's Text – book of pharmaceuticals – Rawlins.
3. Cooper and Gunn's Dispensing for pharmaceutical students Carter.
4. Dispensing of Medication – Martin.
Pharmaceutical Arithmetic and Lating – Schroff and Srivastava

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	KRIYA SHARIRA	DAP 250

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The main aim of the section on Kriya Sharira is to introduce the subject of Ayurveda as a whole so that the students become familiar with the various important terminologies and subjects of Ayurveda.

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the manufacturing of Ayurvedic drugs and will be qualified and competent persons to dispense Ayurvedic drugs in hospitals, dispensaries drugs stores and related activities. They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Dosh, dhatu, malamulam shariram:

Five types of vata, their names, locations and functions in health.

Five types of pitta, their names, locations and functions in health.

Five types of kapha their names, locations and functions in health.

Dehprakriti, types of dosh aprakritis and characteristics of vata, pitta and kapha dominant person.

Rashi purusha and its components according to ayurveda.

Names of seven Dhatus, upadhatu and their nutrition from digested essence of the food.

Description of Agni and complete process of the digestion of Food. (Aharapakakriya and avasthapaka Kriya).

The nutrition of seven dhatus explained by kshirdadhinyaya, kedarikulyanyaya and khalekapotanyaya(Theories).

Definition, production types qualities and importance of Ojas and bala.

Description of Vyadhi Kshmatva.

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Characteristics of presence of Atma in the body.

Concept of mind, its number, functions and role in health.

The description of blood according to Ayurved and modern science.

The process of recognition–Gnanotpatti–according to Charak.

Endocrine glands, their name, location and functions in health.

Composition of blood, functions of blood elements. Blood group and coagulation of blood.

Brief information regarding disorders of blood.

Books Recommended:

1. Bentley's Text – book of pharmaceuticals – Rawlins.
2. Cooper and Gunn's Dispensing for pharmaceutical students Carter.
3. Dispensing of Medication – Martin.
4. Pharmaceutical Arithmetic and Lating–Schroff and Srivastava.

R.K.D.F. UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

DIPLOMA D. Pharma (AYURVEDIC) (DAP)

Course	Subject	Subject Code
DAP	SELECTED TOPICS IN PHARMACY	DAP 260

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The main aim of the section on Ayurveda Parichaya is to introduce the subject of Ayurveda as a whole so that the students become familiar with the various important terminologies and subjects of Ayurveda.

COURSE OUTCOME:

The Students will be acquainted with the Pharmaceutical jurisprudence & toxicology procedures Drugs & cosmetics Act and rules. Quality assurance & their processing Good dispensing practices. Drug's store establishment and management of Pharmacy stores.

They will also be trained to maintain stores of Ayurvedic drugs.

COURSE CONTENT:

Pharmaceutical jurisprudence & toxicology.

Drugs & cosmetics Act and rules.

Quality assurance & GMP. Good dispensing practices.

Drug's store establishment and management of Pharmacy stores.

Books Recommended:

1. Bentley's Text – book of pharmaceuticals – Rawlins.
2. Cooper and Gunn's Dispensing for pharmaceutical students Carter.
3. Dispensing of Medication – Martin.
4. Pharmaceutical Arithmetic and Lating – Schroff and Srivastava.