

Performance Appraisal Policy

RKDF University, Bhopal

(Approved in the BOM meeting held on.....07.8.2018.....and GB Meeting held on.....11.9.2018.....)

Preamble

Improving the quality and equity of teaching, research and extensions depends to a large extent on the motivation and performance of individual faculties. In turn, effective appraisal and feedback for faculties is essential to increase the focus on teaching and research quality and other extension activities. Appraisals can also support the effective organization of University system by allowing faculties to progress in their career and take on new roles and responsibilities based on an appropriate process of evaluation of their performance.

The Performance appraisal provides an annual written review of individual performance, in the context of the ongoing performance appraisal process. It is an effort designed to facilitate constructive evaluation while clarifying performance objectives, provide feedback about the staff's performance with respect to skills and behavior, provide a framework for identifying employee career advancement and opportunities and to serve as a basis for arriving at decisions objectively. Directors/Principals are responsible for completing the annual performance self-appraisal of the teaching and non-teaching staff under them, as part of the performance appraisal process.

Policy

A performance appraisal gives individual faculty and their superiors an opportunity to review performance, work content, loads and volumes, to look back on what has been achieved during the past year then decide future objectives. It is also the time an employee can fix his/her personal objectives, and any learning and development requirements which may help. The appraisal system is designed to:

1. Be a positive process.
2. Raise the quality of services provided by motivating.
3. Increase job satisfaction.
4. Identify appropriate training and development requirements.

Purpose

- ✓ to align annual individual goals with concerned department and university goals.
- ✓ provide feedback on progress against the goals.
- ✓ documenting the professional growth and development needs and achievements of all stakeholders.
- ✓ encourage and improve open and constructive communication.
- ✓ promote the improvement of individual performance.

- ✓ encourage and foster continued professional development.
- ✓ Collect data to support analysis and decisions in staffing, compensation and training.
- ✓ To implement annual merit increments.

Process of Performance Appraisal and Feedback

Each department will follow an academic year cycle and determine their internal timelines. The appropriate timeline should be shared at the start of the academic session with the teaching and non-teaching staff prior to the start of the evaluation process. All teaching and non-teaching staff must receive a Performance Appraisal format. Directors/Principal may determine the timing of the annual performance cycle based on the needs and work cycles of their respective department. The common timelines are as follows:

- Academic year cycle (July to June- Each year).
- Goal setting generally completed in the first quarter
- Performance appraisals completed, reviewed and finalized (all signatures obtained) by (31st August)
